

CALL FOR PAPERS

March 18 - 20, 2009

Pontificia Universidad Javeriana – Facultad de Comunicación y Lenguaje
Bogotá, Colombia

Description

The focus of "Dialogue Under Occupation" is the ongoing exploration of dialogue and discourse in areas of the world experiencing occupation. Dialogue is intended in the sense that understanding of differing perspectives comes through dialogue. Discourse refers to the types of talk that the various stakeholders involved in occupation engage in (e.g., political discourse, media discourse, public discourse).

The goal of the conference is to provide a venue to maximize the investigation and application of differing perspectives (i.e., the dialogue or discourse of the occupied, the dialogue or discourse of the occupiers, or the interaction between opposing sides), and to actively promote greater understanding of the ideologies, issues, concerns, etc. of individuals affected by occupation in its various dimensions.

As we intend this conference to be interdisciplinary, we invite scholars from various disciplines to submit papers that address the use of dialogue in the creation, maintenance, resistance, and resolution of occupation.

Multidisciplinary approaches and models of dialogue analysis such as Dialogue Grammar, Discourse Analysis, Critical Discourse Studies, Multi-modal Discourse Analysis, Conversational Analysis, Social Constructionism, etc., are welcomed.

Send submissions in Spanish or English to: duo@javeriana.edu.co

OR via regular post to:

DUO III
Departamento de Lenguas
Facultad de Comunicación y Lenguaje
Pontificia Universidad Javeriana
Transversal 4 No. 42-00 piso 6
Bogotá, COLOMBIA
Attn: Carolina Jaramillo-Correa

For all proposals, send an abstract of 250-300 words and a separate cover sheet by

November 1, 2008

(Be sure to follow Submission Instructions for consideration)

Strands

Papers relating to hegemony, power, agency, identity, among others, will be particularly relevant. Be sure to identify the strand for your submission as this will help to determine its applicability to the conference.

Discourse of Enactment:

The language of the policies and politics of occupation (official contexts, education, media, etc.).

Discourse of Transaction:

The language of institutions and its role in spreading the policies, keeping the occupied and the occupiers informed and/or misinformed (i.e., language of the media, language of education policies that affect learners and teachers, language of official public discourse).

Discourse of Reaction:

The language of daily life under occupation: talking about the "self" vs. the "other"; historical narratives of the occupation; center vs. periphery; the language of the ingroup, outgroup, and/or intergroup; the language of teachers in relation to educational policies, and the language of students in reaction to educational policies.

Discourse of Resolution:

The language of peacemakers and peacekeepers, as well as the language of resignation, acceptance, and coexistence. The language of educators who help out building peace in occupied contexts (school and classroom experiences).

Submission Instructions

Abstract (250-300 words) & Cover Sheet

You may submit a proposal for a paper presentation (20 minutes with 10 minutes for questions), a panel (maximum of 4 papers limited to a 2-hour block), Posters may also be submitted for works in progress.

DO NOT include any self-identifying information on the abstract; indicate only the title and the abstract itself. On the separate cover sheet, include:

1. Title
2. Strand you're submitting to (i.e., Enactment, Transaction, Reaction, Resolution)
3. Format (paper, panel, or poster)
4. Author(s)
5. Affiliation(s)
6. Postal Mailing Address (for primary author)
7. E-mail (for primary author)

N.B. Incomplete or inaccurate submissions may not be considered.

Conference fees \(including international transfer commission\)

Early Registration Fee: Before 20 January, 2009

Students: US$ 60.00

Professionals: US$ 90.00

Between 21 January 2009 and 1 March, 2009

Students: US$ 80.00

Professionals: US$ 110.00

Further information

duo@javeriana.edu.co

www.javeriana.edu.co/cyl/duo